

BIG IDEAS - An exhibition of leading danish architecture and design to take place in Bratislava 29/3 - 15/4

Bjarke Ingels Group - BIG - is a Copenhagen based group of 50 architects and designers operating within the fields of architecture, research and urban development. Their innovative projects have received a lot of international acknowledgement and the group has won several prizes. The exhibition opens on 29 March at 20.00 in the Design Factory. A presentation with following interactive discussion by Bjarne Ingels and Hans Ibelings will prelude the official opening at 18.30. The exhibition will be open to the public from 30 March.
